

Queen Toni Leaves Dixon Tuesday Eve On Trip of Thrills

Reception and Banquet to Precede Departure for Western Coast

Miss Toni Harding of Morrison, Queen of the Rock River Valley, will depart from Dixon on a thrilling two weeks vacation trip Tuesday evening, Sept. 30 at 7:40 o'clock on the NorthWestern's stream-lined train, City of Los Angeles, the committee in charge of the beauty contest of the Dixon Lions club announced today. Before her departure she is to be feted in Dixon.

Climaxing a series of parties and social functions given in her honor at Morrison, Miss Harding will be tendered a reception at the Loveland Community House at 4:30 o'clock on the afternoon of Sept. 30. This will be followed by a banquet at the Hotel Dixon at 6 o'clock to which the public is invited. Tickets for the banquet are now available from President Harry Bates of the Lions club, Attorney Elwin Wadsworth, chairman of the beauty contest committee and at the Evening Telegraph office.

The committee in charge indicated today that reservations will be limited to 100 and a charge of one dollar will be made for each reservation at the banquet.

To Make Special Stop
Following the banquet, Miss Harding will be escorted to the NorthWestern passenger station, where the crack train will make a special stop to take on the honored passenger. A delegation of Morrison citizens will present Miss Harding with a special gift.

The Rock River Valley Queen will convey special greetings from the Dixon Lions club to several western Lions clubs in which the train will make regular stops.

Special accommodations for Miss Toni have been arranged by the NorthWestern on the trip to and from Hollywood.

Hollywood Entertainment
Miss Harding will arrive in Los Angeles Thursday, Oct. 2, where she will be met by Miss Louella Parsons, former Dixomite and queen of movieland critics and writers. Tentative plans for her entertainment while in the movie capital provide for a luncheon tendered by Miss Parsons, which will be attended by many of the Hollywood celebrities; a dinner given in Miss Harding's honor by Ronald Reagan and his charming wife, Jane Wyman; tours of many of the principal studios in Hollywood, where she will receive screen tests; attendance at Miss Parsons' nationwide broadcast on Friday, Oct. 3; a visit to Miss Parsons' ranch; a trip to Catalina Island; a visit to Warner Bros. studio near Hollywood, where she will watch Ronald "Dutch" Reagan, who is now working in production of a feature film, "King's Row".

A telephone message from the Warner Bros. studios at Hollywood yesterday afternoon assured the local committee of the producers' plans to assist in the entertain-

Truck Regulation Act Is Held Valid in Sangamon Court

Springfield, Ill., Sept. 25.—(AP)—Circuit Judge Victor Hemphill today ruled that the 1939 truck regulation act laws constitutional and dissolved a temporary injunction which had allowed 620 truckers to operate without complying with the act for the last 19 months.

Constitutionality of the truck act, which requires safety tests and insurance coverage as well as exercising other supervision over trucking in Illinois, was challenged by the Certificated Motor Carriers, of which State Treasurer Warren Wright is president, and other truckers.

Judge Hemphill held that one section of the law that permitted truckers to obtain local carrier certificates if they presented 25 affidavits of necessity was unconstitutional but ruled that all other sections of the act were valid. The legislature last spring amended the act to meet the objection, however.

Some Need Permits

When the suit was filed, Wright contended that the law "not only regulates the operation of trucks on the highway but attempts to regulate the business." Other parties to the suit were Lon E. Martin, Taylorville; Sidney J. Williams of the Ready Trucking Company, Chicago; and Harry Miller, Taylorville.

George M. Fort, chief commissioner in the motor carriers division, said that 191 of the 620 truckers challenging the act had filed application for operating permits before the deadline last September 1 and had been granted permits automatically. The others seeking "for hire" permits, he said, must appear before the commission and prove necessity for service.

Consistent

International Falls, Minn., Sept. 25.—(AP)—The grouse hunting luck of H. L. Owen was very consistent—all bad. His record:
Got wet and cold.
Mosquitoes plagued him.
His car mired.
Another car ran over the tail of his hunting dog.
He chased the injured dog three hours before catching him and—
Someone stole Owen's birds hanging outside a cabin while the weary hunter slept.

Sen. Nye Indorsed Nazi Spy Picture, Warner Testifies

Washington, Sept. 25.—(AP)—Harry M. Warner, president of Warner Brothers, told a senate subcommittee today that Senator Nye (R-ND), one of the chief critics of alleged war propaganda in the movies, had indorsed the film, "Confessions of a Nazi Spy", in 1939.

Alleged Interview
Nye, who is co-author with Senator Clark (D-Mo) of a resolution pending before the subcommittee for a formal inquiry into propaganda, was quoted by Harrison as saying in an interview with the advertising man:
"Anyone who truly appreciated the one great democracy upon this earth will appreciate this picture and feel a new allegiance to the democratic cause".

Wendell L. Willkie, counsel for the motion picture industry in the hearings, issued a statement saying that producers had merely exercised good entertainment judgment in making films which showed nazism in an unfavorable light.

Warner began his testimony by reading a long statement in which he said that he had received no suggestions from the Roosevelt administration as to the type of pictures Warner Brothers should produce.

He said, however, that he made no secret of his anti-nazi attitude, but denied that any pictures produced by his company were propaganda.

Marshall Field, III To Be Owner of New Chicago Morning Paper

Chicago, Sept. 25.—(AP)—Marshall Field, III, announced today he would be the sole owner of a new morning newspaper to be established in Chicago with Silliman Evans, chief executive of the Nashville Tennessee, as publisher.

"All we can say about the publication dates," Field added, "is that it will be on the street as soon as possible".
Field, millionaire and philanthropist, and Evans made the announcement at a press conference. They said no definite decisions had been made regarding the paper's name, format, executive personnel, office building, publishing facilities, or wire services.

"On definite thing can be said right now," Field remarked, "we'll accept advertising."

Torch Singer Helen Morgan Under Knife

Chicago, Sept. 25.—(AP)—Helen Morgan, the torch singer, underwent a serious abdominal operation today at Henrotin hospital.

Dr. Phillip Shambaugh, the surgeon who operated, said the operation was performed to remove the spleen because of a blood disturbance.

"It was quite an ordeal, and we will not know if she is out of danger for several days," Dr. Shambaugh said.

The stage and night club star was stricken last week while appearing at a theater. She was given a number of blood transfusions since entering the hospital.

Sincere

Eugene, Ore., Sept. 25.—(AP)—You couldn't blame Dean Karl W. Outhank, personnel administrator for being skeptical when an Oregon University student applied for a part time job for himself and a steam roller.
But the boy meant just what he said. He had a summer job with a construction company that went broke and paid him off with the roller.

America First Committee Denies It's Anti-Semitic; Defends Lind

Chicago, Sept. 25.—(AP)—Persons urging American intervention in the war are responsible, says the America First Committee, for injection of the race issue into the "discussion of war or peace."

The organization's national committee released a statement last night defending Charles A. Lindbergh who, in a recent Des Moines address, said the "British, the Jewish and the Roosevelt administration" were the three major groups urging this country's active belligerency.

"Colonel Lindbergh and his fellow members of the America First Committee are not anti-Semitic,"

Hundreds of Early Washington People See Duke, Duchess

Former King of Great Britain and Wife in Nation's Capital

Washington, Sept. 25.—(AP)—The Duke of Windsor today expressed his absolute confidence that Britain would win the war.

After discussing the international situation with Secretary of State Hull for 17 minutes, the Duke was surrounded by newsmen for a brief impromptu press conference.

One newsmen inquired whether the Duke was confident Britain would win the war.

"Absolutely, absolutely", Windsor replied.
When the Duke came out of the state department the Duchess was waiting for him in the car. She had changed from her early morning costume and was wearing a Wallis blue dress and a Juliet cap, with a nose veil.

The couple then rode the short distance to the White House for a call on President Roosevelt.

They entered the White House at 11:50 a. m., and departed 27 minutes later without disclosing the subject of their conversations with the president.

Talks with Sec. Hull

The former king, hurrying through the state department corridors, told newsmen that he had discussed the international situation in a general manner with Secretary Hull.

Shortly before his state department call, Windsor heard directly from Chairman Emory S. Land of the Maritime Commission that the commission was "doing the best we can to expedite the delivery of all ships under construction".

The duchess remained at the British embassy, where the couple breakfasted, while the Duke made this first of his official calls.

Embassy officials said that the Duchess would be a luncheon guest of her aunt, Mrs. Buchanan Merriam, who resides here.

Greeted By Thousands

Thousands of early risers in this ordinarily blasé national capital roared a welcome today to the Duke and his American-born Duchess for whom he renounced the British throne.

Greeted officially by Sir Ronald Campbell, British charge d'affaires, and George T. Summerlin, the state department's protocol chief, the royal couple also was welcomed by a tumultuous crowd which pressed against police lines at the Union Station.

After the official greetings, the couple had a meeting in the privacy of a special waiting room with the Duchess' aunt, Mrs. Buchanan Merriam of Washington.

Then with waves and smiles for the crowd, the visitors were whisked off to the British embassy for the start of a busy day.

The Duchess, the former Wallis Warfield of Baltimore, was chic in a black tailored suit with velvet revers and a light blue dotted blouse. She wore black shoes and gloves and a black hat. Turquoise earrings, a turquoise orna-

Six Naval Fliers Die in 2 Crashes

Pensacola, Fla., Sept. 25.—(AP)—Two navy plane crashes, one in a rain and windstorm, took the lives of six aviators from the air station yesterday.

More than 200 persons in Bay Springs, Miss., saw one of the planes, buffeted by high winds, emerge from a heavy cloud and plunge four men aboard to their death. Cards and letters on the bodies indicated the dead were Jesse Wilcox, Warrenton, Fla.; T. O. Carter, Pensacola; B. B. Barbour and S. R. Oldaker, (Addresses unavailable).

The other plane crashed on Santa Rosa peninsula near here, fatally injuring Ensign Donald A. Utz, 27, of Port Washington, N. Y., and Flying Cadet Emanuel L. Plinske, 24, Green Bay, Wis. Air station officials said the fliers apparently lost control at a low altitude.

Seamen's Strike For Higher War Bonuses Is Ended

Agree to Negotiate Before National Defense Board

By The Associated Press
A seamen's strike for higher war bonuses was ended today by an agreement to negotiate the dispute between the sailors and owners before the National Defense Mediation Board.

The decision, reached yesterday, released for immediate service 25 ships needed for transporting defense materials and lend-lease supplies. On Monday, a conference in Washington will try to adjust the dispute which involves the mariners' demands for a war bonus of $60 a month for voyages to West Indian waters.

Ships had been tied up by the strike in seven harbors on the Atlantic, Pacific and Gulf coasts.

The mediation board took jurisdiction in another dispute of vast importance to the national defense effort—the threat of a strike by 22,000 AFL mechanics in the Consolidated Aircraft Company plant at San Diego, Calif., which holds huge orders for bombers. While 98.8 per cent of the union membership were reported to have voted in favor of a strike, spokesmen for both the union and management appeared confident that the differences could be adjusted without an actual walkout.

Demand 10 Cent Increase
The union has demanded a blanket 10 cents an hour wage increase. The company's counter offer called for a five cent raise and an increase in beginners' scales from 55-65 cents an hour to 60-75 cents.

In the hard coal fields of Pennsylvania, about 1,400 of 20,000 striking CIO United Mine Workers returned to work yesterday, after walking out several days ago in protest to an increase in union dues and assessments. Forty anthracite mines in the Hazleton, Pa., area, remained closed, however.

In Pittsburgh, the three day strike of 159 truck drivers employed by the City Bureau of Highways and Sewers ended with strikers returning to work today under an agreement city council will consider their demands for wage increases.

Chief Justice Murphy Heads Board of Trustees

Springfield, Ill., Sept. 25.—(AP)—Chief Justice Loren E. Murphy of the Illinois supreme court is chairman of the board of trustees to administer the new judges retirement system authorized by the legislature last June.

Murphy was elected chairman yesterday when other members of the board were sworn into office. Other members are Circuit Judge W. G. Knoch, Naperville; Circuit Judge Joseph Burke, Chicago; County Judge Harlington Wood, Springfield; C. G. Willard, representing State Treasurer Warren Wright. A. S. Hansen, Chicago, was named secretary.

WPO Aid for Schools at Hanover Approved

Washington, Sept. 25.—(AP)—John M. Carmody, Federal Works Administrator, announced today presidential approval of a defense public works project for school facilities at Hanover, Ill. The project calls for a $43,000 loan and a grant of $57,000.

Reds Say Leningrad Battle Is Beginning to Favor Defenders

Germans Claim Nazi Troops Fighting Inside City

(By The Associated Press)

German troops were reported fighting in the streets of Leningrad's suburbs today, posing a grave threat in the siege of the old czarist capital, and nazi military quarters declared that the position of Red army defenders was becoming "more and more hopeless".

The Russians, however, countered with the assertion that the fierce battle was beginning to turn in favor of Marshall Klement Voroshilov's defense forces.

Soviet counter-attacks in greater number and strength were reported to be stemming the nazi onslaught, despite the arrival of a steady stream of German reinforcements.

The Moscow radio, as heard in London, admitted that a few German tanks had succeeded in knifing through the soviet first line of defense at Leningrad yesterday, but asserted they were thrown back with heavy losses.

German military dispatches said nazi shock troops were pushing deeper toward the heart of the city of 3,200,000 after crushing soviet resistance in at least two villages on Leningrad's outskirts.

German assault troops were pictured as fighting the Russians with bayonets, hand grenades and sidearms.

Moscow Denies Claim

The Moscow radio, denying that the Germans had actually penetrated suburban Leningrad, said the nazi report apparently referred to the small town of Peterhof, on the Gulf of Finland, nearly 20 miles west of the city.

With soviet war supplies hard hit by destruction and capture in the 96-day-old conflict, reliable London quarters disclosed that British tanks may soon go into action on the vast front. British-manned RAF planes are already fighting alongside the Russians.

At sea, Adolf Hitler's high command reported in a special bulletin that German U-boats operating off West Africa had destroyed 11 merchantment total.

Argentine Chief Of Air Force Is Ousted; Fear Plot

20 Officers Arrested In Precaution Against Conspiracy

Buenos Aires, Sept. 25.—(AP)—Gen Angel M. Zuloaga was reported today to have been relieved of the Argentine air force command amid political repercussions from army precautions against a movement officially described as a coup d'etat conspiracy.

Acting President Ramon Castillo said absolute tranquility prevailed following the occupation of military airports, arrest of some 20 aviation officers and immobilization of the nation's 200 first line planes.

He charged that radical party members, nationalists and others were involved in the conspiracy. At the same time he said the plotting had little importance.

The news agency Andl said a high military source informed it that General Zuloaga, 56 year old pioneer aviator, had been relieved of command of the United States-trained air force as a result of an abortive uprising among aviation officers.

There were unconfirmed reports that he was under house arrest. Andl quoted its military informant as saying Zuloaga himself asked to be relieved, that he did not admit complicity in the plot, but was offended by the army's attitude.

Patrol Air Fields

Troop detachments as large as battalions, which total 900 men in the Argentine army, patrolled the air fields, military planes were ordered grounded until Saturday and aerial bombs and ammunition were under guard.

Dying Breath of Texas Hurricane Blows Across Mid-Western States

Chicago, Sept. 25.—(AP)—The dying breath of Texas' hurricane blew across middle western states today, reaching velocities of more than 50 miles an hour.

Storm warnings were issued for all the Great Lakes. A. J. Knarr, government weather forecaster, said the wind swept northeastward over Illinois, Kentucky, Indiana and Ohio into Michigan. A total of 1.06 inches of rain had fallen in Chicago overnight.

Winds in Illinois were not as strong, but Knarr forecast that they would reach 30 or 40 miles an hour over some areas. Temperatures were tumbling.

Rainfall last night was heavy in parts of Illinois, measuring 2.34 inches at Peoria, 1.78 at Springfield, 2.67 across the river at St. Louis, 1.11 at Dixon, 1.04 at Moline, 1.03 at Kewanee, 1.06 at Chicago and .57 at Effingham.

Action for Repeal of Neutrality Act Started in Senate

Taft Warns Sidetracking of Law Equal to Edict of War

Washington, Sept. 25.—(AP)—Senator McKellar (D-Tenn.) introduced in the Senate today a resolution to repeal the neutrality act which bars the arming of American merchant ships and prevents them from entering combat zones.

Declaring that the act was "in direct conflict with our freedom of the seas policy", McKellar told his colleagues that the law ought to be repealed outright. The Tennessee senator has been a consistent supporter of the administration's foreign policy, but there was no immediate indication as to whether he introduced the repealer with the knowledge of senate leaders.

President Roosevelt said Tuesday that revision or repeal of the act was being studied, indicating that action might be forthcoming next week.

McKellar said he thought that while the law was on the statute books, the government was "paying virtually no attention to it" and for that reason it ought to be repealed.

Senator Taft (R-Ohio) expressed belief that repeal of the act would be "equivalent to a declaration of war".

In the house Rep. Woodruff (R-Mich.) said the president was going to "give congress an opportunity to agree with President Roosevelt that the act should be repealed".

Enforcement Not Intended
The law, Woodruff said, "is the merest shell of an empty statute which the government doesn't intend to enforce".

"Every informed member of congress", Woodruff said, "and every informed observer in Washington, knows that President Roosevelt has not left a vestige of the neutrality act unviolated in spirit, if not in letter. x x x Judging by Mr. Roosevelt's past performance, it would matter little to him whether the congress did or did not modify or repeal the ragged remnants of the neutrality act, because Mr. Roosevelt in effect repeals and modifies and amends statutes to suit himself when he feels the occasion requires."

"The American people ought to understand—and most of them probably do understand—that when the president issued in a world-wide radio broadcast his famous order to the navy to 'shoot on sight' at any German or Italian submarine, surface or aircraft, he himself shot the decrepit neutrality act right through the vitals. It has, of course, been as dead as the dodo ever since."

Sees Bitter Fight
"At the very least," he said to reporters, "it would grant the administration authority to carry on an undeclared war."

Taft foresaw a knock down and drag out battle in the senate against any repeal attempt—a forecast which few legislators disputed—and promised that he and other opponents of the administration's foreign policy would fight vigorously.

However, Rep. Wadsworth (R-N.Y.) believed that the house was ready to repeal or modify the law, and he voiced the hope that it

German Style Bombsights Are Used Here—FBI

New York, Sept. 25.—(AP)—Testimony that the United States had obtained German bombsights and was using parts of them was introduced today at the trial of 16 charged with espionage conspiracy.

William Friedman, Federal Bureau of Investigation agent, testified that he had eavesdropped on a conversation March 7, 1941, between William Sebald, FBI counter spy, and Hermann Lang, a defendant accused of selling secrets of the American-made Norden bombsight to the German government.

Friedman said he was hidden in an adjoining room when Lang, a German-born draftsman of the Carl L. Norden company, entered the office. He said the talk eventually came around to bombsights.

"Lang said his plant was being enlarged," Friedman testified. "He told Sebald, 'bombsight instruments which had been taken from German planes are being experimented with at my plant and certain parts are being used. Send this across.'"

"Sebald said he would." Sebald, who testified earlier that he had been commissioned by the German Gestapo to erect a secret radio station and did so in collaboration with the FBI—identified Lang as one of dozens of German spies with whom he worked.

Ottawa Association Meeting

The Baptist church of Paw Paw entertained the Baptist Ottawa Association on Tuesday and Wednesday. The two day meeting was a great success in every detail. Huge crowds gathered at the meetings to enjoy the fine programs and the most talented speakers.

Tuesday evening the young people B. Y. P. U. banquet was held and a very large number were in attendance for the delicious dinner and fine program. Richard Reed of Sterling, the retiring president, was in charge of the meeting. Election of officers was held. Those elected to serve the association for the coming year were: President, Hazel Morris of Tiskilwa; vice president, Howard Johnson, Manlius; secretary, Rosalind Johnson, and treasurer, Helen Dean. The speaker for the program was Kenneth Lindsay of Ottawa. The group singing and special music was enjoyed.

The Wednesday sessions, for adults of the association, were likewise well attended. The morning speaker was Mr. Koller, president of the Northern Baptist Theological Seminary of Chicago. Dr. Schell, state director, and Mr. Judson, another state man, were the evening speakers. All programs during the day were presented with fine music and programs.

P-T. A. Meeting

On Monday evening, Sept. 29th, the first meeting of the local Parent Teachers Association will be held at the high school auditorium. All are cordially invited to attend.

AAA Meeting Monday

On Monday evening the A. A. A. farm program meeting was held at the Community club rooms for election of officers and committees to serve this locality for the coming season. A good number of farmers attended the event, to learn about the various changes and rules of the program.

A Thought for Today

The Son of man shall come in the glory of his Father with his angels, and then he shall reward every man according to his works.—Matthew 16:27.

God gives to every man the virtue, temper, understanding, taste, that lifts him into life, and lets him fall just in the niche he was ordained to fill.—Cowan.

Trade War Weapon?

More than 22 billion dollars worth of gold is now held by the United States government. More of that commodity is pouring in from all foreign sources, and as long as our government continues to buy gold at a price higher than it actually would command in the open world market, it will continue to arrive here. Presently we shall have all the gold available.

This gold, when the inevitable trade war begins, may stand the United States in hand, even if we are compelled to reduce the value of it in terms of American dollars so as to conform to world thinking.

Our chief potential rivals in world trade, assuming that some day peace is restored, will be Great Britain, Japan and Germany. Britain has gold mines, but we have the actual gold. Neither Japan nor Germany has gold mines.

If we should wish to buy rubber from the East Indies, we could pay for it in gold—a very attractive proposition to any government which has sources of rubber. Tin, magnesium and other strategic materials could be purchased for gold. South America would be glad to deal with us for gold, and surely could be induced to do a little buying from the United States as long as there were a possibility of doing other business with us on a gold basis.

It is reported that Mussolini and Hitler, having no gold of their own, do not rate the stuff very highly. They think more of their own paper money, which is based on their own credit. Fascist credit is somewhat down in the list of commodities, we take it. It is unlimited as sea water, and worth about as much a pound.

There might be some complaint from inside the United States if our government were to accord gold privileges to citizens of other countries while withholding them from us. Such complaint would be justified, and the cause for it could be eliminated quickly by a return to the gold standard here.

Sunshine is said to be stored in oranges and lemons. The law is constantly trying to find out where moonshine is stored.

SERIAL STORY

BRIDE FROM THE SKY

BY HELEN WELSHIMER

COPYRIGHT, 1941, NEA SERVICE, INC.

THE STORY: Associate magazine editor Judy Allen was congratulating herself on having her life all figured out—marriage with wealthy attorney Philip Rogers, handsome and dependable; a continued career; a complete forgetting of her infatuation for dashing and impulsive Sandy Ammerman, aviator, whom she thought she loved until newspapers linked him romantically with heiress Peg Gordon. But Sandy is not to be shelled so simply. The day of her wedding he appears, asks her to come with him, kidnaps her when she refuses. On the ride to a nearby airport, Judy, bound and gagged, is now sure it is Philip she loves. Sandy she despises. How soon would her mother, her father, Philip, start a search for her?

FLIGHT TO NOWHERE

CHAPTER XVI

AS quickly as Sandy deposited Judy into the cabin he released her hands and legs, removed the gag from her mouth, and motioned to the man on guard to keep an eye on the girl until he started to taxi down the field.

It seemed to Judy, screaming, talking, crying, biting her lips in anger, that the ship went straight up. Sandy turned around and grinned at her.

"Happy?" he asked. "Ecstatic?" she answered in a maddened voice. "I hate you!" "Nice to know that you're thinking about me." His voice was gay and irresponsible. "Grand view, don't you think?"

She looked over the side of the plane unconsciously. Oh, yes, it was a wonderful view. Tens of thousands of people moved down there, free to get married, or go shopping, or telephone the police, or do anything they felt like doing. People who knew all about stability and safety and fires and candlelight and how much it cost to have a wedding with bridesmaids wearing cherry flounces and both a bridal cake and a wedding cake and a husband you met at the altar.

Maybe if she kept her voice steady she could make Sandy obey her.

"Sandy." Tenderness, softness, intrigue hidden behind the edent consonants, wrapped themselves around the name.

"Yes, Mata Hari?" the friendly voice in front answered.

"If you didn't have on your helmet and weren't too far away

I'd pull your hair—oh, how I'd pull it! As soon as we land . . . " "I'll win you over by that time," he said. Half-turning, he blew her a kiss. "Sandy," her voice echoed again, "please let's go down. It's time for the wedding. Why, I won't even have a chance to powder my nose."

"Anyway, your lips will be dim rose and virginal. Most lips, brides' lips, I mean, look like bright strawberries."

DUSK was coming quickly. The purple sky made a backdrop for planes that winged their way to earth with twinkling lamps. Other transports went out to find venture and adventure. Beacon lights shone red.

"Phil will be frightened—" She spoke through the tube again. "Oh, Phil . . . of course. I'd almost forgotten we were a triangle. I'm glad we've discarded him. He wouldn't make a good husband for you, Judy. He would always wear his overshoes, and his tie and his socks would be related." The rollicking voice didn't falter.

Judy moved restlessly but she did not answer any more questions. On . . . on . . . on. Only the hum of the motor and the deepening purple of the coming night. Last night, when the ushers and bridesmaids were pairing off for a wedding march—last night when Phil had murmured something about tomorrow's Paradise, she had not known how fortunate she was.

Maybe she should be glad that Sandy had come flying by. Otherwise she might never have known that Sandy was just a moth against a light and Philip was—well, she'd make herself say it—Philip was protection and perfection. All doubts were gone when one rode through the sky. She smiled enigmatically. Sandy himself had taught her that.

Now that her heart had found its moorings she must get home. She spoke again. "Sandy, I don't love you. I'm grateful to you because you showed me something. But, you lummo, don't you know Phil's father has his finger in some sort of aeronautic pie? He'll have your license taken away for this. But if you'll take me back now, I'll never say a word about counting stars with you. Absolutely I won't." "Kind of you, honey. I know Phil's dad. Nice guy. He's one of a thousand or so who won't look at my parachute. See how I love you? Risking my chance at a future unless you'll come along." His voice was tired, not so triumphant, but Judy did not notice. Night had come, and with it a mist of rain. She fingered the thread in the wedding gown, found the injured lace and unraveled it again.

IF Sandy had turned his head just then, he would have seen such honest misery in the brown eyes, such anguish on the white face, that he might have changed his course.

Instead his voice was sober as he spoke now. The gaiety was gone.

"Judy, you don't love Rogers. You may think his bank book will look well in your library. Maybe his talk of stability looks pretty solid to you." The plane swung sharply to the west and he brought it back quickly.

"You think everything that is dangerous isn't right. Love, loyalty, faithfulness haven't anything to do with four strong walls and a lot of land. I'll buy you a house some day, a whole apartment block, if a cottage won't do. I happen to love you too much to let you trust your own impulses this time."

The mist was heavier. The night grew darker. Judy was cold. There might be a leather jacket some place around. Her cheeks burned with anger as she started to search. Phil never would have left her without a warm outer garment.

"What are my own impulses?" she asked, still searching. "Oh, telling Skyways you were my fiancée and then starting west to find me." "You knew?" Her voice was almost a sob.

"Not all of it until yesterday when I came. Judy, do you think I'll give you up to anyone now that I know you care at all?" His voice was tender and the sky was vast and lonely. Judy did not notice, though. A little while ago Sandy had mentioned his parachute. He kept it folded like a seat cushion, she knew.

She had taken parachute jumps at the World's Fair amusement. She wasn't afraid to bail out. This lunatic could go to prison. Carefully she put her hand under her and found the packet that she wanted.

DIXON EVENING TELEGRAPH

Washington

Hugh S. Johnson Writes From Capital During Mallon's Illness

BY GEN. HUGH S. JOHNSON (Distributed by King Features Syndicate, Inc. Reproduction in whole or in part strictly prohibited.)

Washington, Sept. 25.—In all the growing overhead control for the purpose of speeding up industrial mobilization, who is charged with making the maximum and quickest use of transportation? It is impossible to avoid superlatives in dealing with this subject. On the surface they may seem to be exaggerations but they are not.

Take the case of a ship loaded with war supplies for England. There are plenty of most kinds of supplies. The trick is to get them overseas. If the "turnaround" (time consumed in loading, unloading and round trip) of that ship is cut in half, it is not hard to see that what you are doing is just doubling both the rate and the amount of supply. No amount of jumping up and down and yelling about the need for increased factory effort would be half as effective as a successful attempt to increase the speed of transportation both here and abroad. We found that out during World war I when we cut in half the "turnaround" time of trans-Atlantic ships—transports and freighters. If it hadn't been done we could hardly have made half the effort we did. It was done by a variety of devices the best of which was increasing the speed of loading and unloading both by mechanical devices and bettered organization and unrelenting drive and effort.

The case at sea is not quite the same now due to magnificent distances and lack of port facilities, but the principle is the same for the domestic or even the overseas problem.

Take as another case the supposed gasoline shortage in our eastern states. It is quite clear now that there is no gasoline shortage. It is a transportation shortage. So what do we do? Mr. Ickes says, "build a pipe line." Mr. Wallace's SPAB says "no soap"—or rather—"no steel".

The Association of American Railroads says, "use our idle tank cars." Ickes' people say their idleness is "theoretical". I have seen the figures on both sides. They are contradictory. But this is just a question of fact. Somebody ought to be able to decide what is truth. Look out your car window as you pass through oil towns or distribution centers such as Savannah. There you will see rank on rank of empty tank cars. I am informed that the average standstill at Savannah of 133 tank cars in July was 15.4 days. Of 45 cars the standstill was 36.6 days and of some 15.7 days.

I use these somewhat controverted figures only by way of illustration of the fact that some dynamic two-fisted guy should be given the job of making Sammy's tremendous transportation system clink into high gear. Sure, I know that Ralph Budd, who is a top-hole railroad man, has a little fraction of the job as to railroads. The Maritime Commission has part of it as to ocean transport and Jerry Land, head of that commission, says that at least a part of the solution is concrete barges for towing—as this column advocated months ago. But who pulls all these guys together, including Ickes, and gets a combined and agreed result? The answer is as in dear old Bert Williams' classic song—"Nobody".

Since this column started to point up this discussion it has been deluged with suggestions—for example, that trucks freighted east from the unrestricted area be required to carry the gasoline for their return trip in drums and that eastern truck freighters headed west stock up out there, etcetera. None of these suggestions alone will solve the problem but a combination of them could dent it. Who is doing that—again "nobody".

I am glad that John Carmody is going to take a census of American motor vehicles. He ought to include air vehicles. We are duplicating the best civilian, truck, bus and air transport system in the world with a military system which is idle most of the time. There is a ridiculous blind-spot here and it ought to be covered by appointing, if only in an advisory capacity, as experienced chief of transportation.

"You knew?" Her voice was almost a sob. "Not all of it until yesterday when I came. Judy, do you think I'll give you up to anyone now that I know you care at all?" His voice was tender and the sky was vast and lonely. Judy did not notice, though. A little while ago Sandy had mentioned his parachute. He kept it folded like a seat cushion, she knew.

She had taken parachute jumps at the World's Fair amusement. She wasn't afraid to bail out. This lunatic could go to prison. Carefully she put her hand under her and found the packet that she wanted.

Lake of the Woods, part in Canada and part in the U. S. has an area of 2,000 square miles.

The United States had a population of 31,443,321 in 1860 when the eighth census was taken.

Deaths

Local—

MRS. ENA HOWARD
Mrs. Ena Howard passed away at her home, 807 Third street, Wednesday evening following a lingering illness. She was born in Marion, Ky., May 4, 1895, and had been a resident of Dixon for the past 14 years. Surviving are her husband, T. T. Howard; one daughter, Sybil; one son, Ben; two grandchildren; her mother, Mrs. Sarah Teer; one sister, Mrs. Grace Meredith and three brothers, Everett, Lacy and Forrest Teer, all of Dixon. Funeral services will be held Saturday afternoon at 2:30 at the Bethel Evangelical church, the pastor, the Rev. R. L. Wilson officiating, assisted by Dr. J. H. Hughes, pastor of the First Baptist church. Interment will be in Chapel Hill memorial park.

FRANCIS A. FAHRNEY
Francis A. Fahrney passed away at 3:30 o'clock this morning at the Katherine Shaw Bethea hospital after an illness of two years.

Mr. Fahrney was born on a farm near Milledgeville, Aug. 31, 1879. For the past 13 years he had made his home here with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Olin of 420 North Galena avenue.

Surviving are two sons, Foster and Bryant, both of Los Angeles, Calif.

Funeral services will be announced tomorrow. Friends may view the body at the Melvin funeral home until 4 o'clock Friday when it will be taken to the Olin home.

EDWARD C. OLSON

Edward C. Olson, father of Mrs. John A. Marshall, 909 E. Chamberlin street, who had many friends in Dixon, made during his numerous visits at his home, passed away at his home in Wyand at 3:30 o'clock Wednesday morning. Funeral services will be held in Wyand at 2:00 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

MRS. EVA KRINBILL

Mrs. Eva Krinbill, 88, formerly of Dixon and widow of George E. Krinbill, who was the first supervisor of music in Dixon's public schools, passed away in Altadena, Calif. Sept. 16, it was learned here today in a letter to The Telegraph from Morrison H. Vail, also formerly of this city. Funeral services were held at Memory chapel in Pasadena, Sept. 19, with entombment in Angeles Abbey mausoleum.

Concerning her death the Pasadena Star-News said:

Mrs. Eva Krinbill, widow of George E. Krinbill and mother of Clarence E. Krinbill, local pianist and teacher, passed away at her home, 2300 Sinaloa avenue, in Altadena, last night. Had Mrs. Krinbill lived until Dec. 1, she would have reached the age of 89.

Born in Marion, Ohio, in 1852, she moved by ox team to Indiana where she taught school and was married in 1874 at Crown Point. Subsequently she resided in Wisconsin, Minnesota, Illinois and Arizona before coming to California 30 years ago. After residing in Long Beach for years, she came to Altadena to make her home in 1930. As a young girl she joined the Methodist church and was always active in its interests until she became the oldest charter member of the recently organized undenominational Altadena Community Church.

Commenting today on Mrs. Krinbill's life, a friend observes: "She was a most lovable woman with a remarkably brilliant mind and memory which she retained to her last illness, the result of a fall in her home. Among her many friends she was much beloved for her beautiful Christian character and her cheery and helpful disposition always manifest in her smile and keen sense of humor which often concealed severe personal physical sufferings. An unusually strong bond of love existed between Mrs. Krinbill and her son, Clarence, and strangers were many times drawn into their friendship by the sincere devotion of each to the other. Mrs. Krinbill was a great lover of the beautiful in her religion, in nature and in folk and her friends were legion."

McCoy-Fenwick Bridal Is Read This Morning

Miss Della Mae Fenwick, only daughter of John Fenwick of Walton, became the bride of Joseph McCoy, eldest son of the Charles McCoy of Walton, at 8:30 o'clock this morning at St. Mary's church at Walton. The Rev. Father D. R. Dailey celebrated the nuptial high mass.

The bride was wearing white georgette over satin, with a tulle of pearls holding her fingertip veil of silk net. Her arm bouquet contained white asters, and she also carried a pearl rosary.

Miss Rita McCoy, sister of the bridegroom, was the bride's only attendant. She was dressed in dust pink jersey with a shoulder-length veil to match, and carried peach gladioli. Raphael Fenwick, the bride's brother, served Mr. McCoy as best man.

A three-course wedding breakfast was served at the Hotel Natchua for immediate families of the bridal pair, following the ceremony. After a brief wedding trip, the couple will reside in Amboy, where the bridegroom is employed.

PAST PRESIDENTS ELECT OFFICERS

Past presidents of the American Legion Auxiliary elected officers last evening. The new staff includes: President, Mrs. Erma Ommen; vice president, Mrs. Clara Traynor; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Zildah Kennaugh; chaplain, Mrs. Lila Wagner.

The next meeting is to be held at Mrs. Ommen's home, Oct. 15.

BREAKFAST HOSTESS

Bacon and eggs, served at the Meinkes' cottage on the Rock river west of Dixon, satisfied hearty appetites when Mrs. Fred Meinkes entertained members of her 500 club at breakfast this morning. Card games occupied the remainder of the morning.

Mrs. Wilbur Maves is to be the next hostess, when play is resumed in two weeks.

DIRECTOR HAROLD L. WADE NAMES CAST FOR COMMUNITY PLAYERS' FIRST PRODUCTION

An enthusiastic group of some 60 theater-minded persons were present last evening to hear Director Harold L. Wade of Oregon announce the cast of characters he has chosen for "The Male Animal," in which the newly-organized Community Players are to make their debut behind the footlights on Thursday evening, Oct. 23.

Those selected by Mr. Wade to portray the various roles in the famous Thurber-Nugent show are listed below, in order of their appearance on the stage:

Cleota—Mrs. C. E. Morgan.
Ellen Turner—Mrs. Neil Allen.
Tommy Turner—Joe Hall.
Patricia Stanley—Dorothy Cromwell.
Wally Myers—Lynn Jenks.
Dean Frederick Damon—Leo Dixon.
Michael Barnes—Franklin Cline.
Joe Ferguson—Charles Redebaugh.
Blanche Damon—Mercedes Moore.
Ed Keller—Neil Allen.
Myrtle Keller—Mrs. Norris Polhill.
"Nutsy" Miller—Robert S. Sain.
Newspaper reporter—J. V. Ridolph.

After announcing the cast for the play, Mr. Wade expressed regret that only 13 in the group could be chosen, but reminded the members that many others will be assigned to specific duties on one or another of the production crews, and that two additional plays will be staged during the season.

New members from Oregon and Sterling are being welcomed into the organization.

IDEAL CLUB HAS LUNCHEON; PLANS ANNIVERSARY PARTY

Members of the Ideal club were reunited yesterday, after their summer recess, with Mrs. J. R. McDaniel entertaining with a president's luncheon at Lowell park lodge. Luncheon covers were arranged for a dozen clubwomen and two invited guests, Mrs. Walter Smith and Mrs. L. C. Street.

Club calendars were distributed, following the luncheon, and the hostess reviewed Bertha Damon's book, "Grandma Called It Carnival." At their next meeting, the members will be celebrating the thirty-fifth anniversary of their club. An anniversary luncheon is being planned, and is expected to attract a number of former members now residing elsewhere.

TELEGRAPH CHAPEL PICNICS AT PARK

Members of the chapel of The Dixon Evening Telegraph met in Lowell park last evening for their annual picnic. Thirty employees and their families were present to enjoy a baked ham supper.

Karl Forsberg was general chairman for the evening. Earl Slagle, Sr., headed the cake committee, and L. H. Cain was in charge of transportation.

Attending were Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hyde, Mr. and Mrs. Karl Forsberg, Mr. and Mrs. Walter White and two sons, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Cain, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Kested, John Shultz and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Slagle and sons, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Grove, Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Wells and family, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Eberly and family, and Jack Hall.

WARNERS WILL ATTEND BRIDAL IN EVANSTON

Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Warner of 122 Dement avenue and her mother, Mrs. Phoebe Morrison, will be among out of town guests attending the wedding of Mrs. Morrison's granddaughter, Miss Lorraine Matthews of Evanston and William Weaver of Chicago, which is to be solemnized at 8:30 o'clock Friday evening at St. Matthews' Episcopal church in Evanston. A reception will follow the ceremony at the West Moreland Country club.

JOHNSON-MORRISSEY
Miss Leone Morrissey and William Johnson exchanged marriage vows Saturday morning at St. Mary's church in Walton. The Rev. Father D. R. Dailey celebrated the nuptial mass at 8 o'clock.

The bride, who is a daughter of the Lawrence Morrisseys, was dressed in brown crepe with a hat to match. Her shoulder corsage contained white roses.

Her sister, Mrs. Charles Dunphy, as matron of honor, was also wearing brown crepe. Frank Johnson was his brother's best man.

The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. William Johnson of Ohio. The couple will make their home in Ohio.

KANSAS GUESTS

Mrs. Ralph Harris and Mrs. Fred Harris of Ottawa, Kan. are guests of Mrs. Eustace Shaw of Bluff Park. Mrs. Ralph Harris has many friends in Dixon, having visited here frequently.

Comedy Farce Opens Tonight at Illini Hall

In response to the enthusiastic reception of last week's performance of "Why Wives Worry," the Grand Detour Players are repeating the comedy this week at Illini hall in Grand Detour. The usual four-night run opens this evening and will continue through Sunday, with a matinee at 2:30 p. m. Sunday.

Director Richard Vernon returns, after a month's absence behind the footlights, in the role of a helpless butler caught in a whirlwind of two husbands, two wives, and a never-silent doorbell and telephone. Don Randall appears as Clarence Gibbs, a hen-pecked husband whose puny efforts at speaking are always "blacked out" by the "blitzkrieg" tactics of his gossiping, scandal-seeking wife, Peggy Brynn.

John Cosgrove is seen as Roy Baker, whose love for hunting tempts him to deceive his wife, and Maurice Blythe appears as another Roy Baker, whose little white lies cause his wife endless worry. Joan Norlander and Toni Lumley portray the confused wives, and George Bailey completes the cast as a perplexed detective.

MRS. HENRY HEY, MRS. DEAN HEY, ENTERTAIN 40

Mrs. Henry M. Hey and her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Dean Hey, were entertaining at the week's largest party yesterday, when they received 40 guests at luncheon at The Coffee House. Asters were a colorful note on the party tables.

Following the luncheon, tables were made up for contract bridge in the ladies' lounge of the Loveland Community House. Window bouquets of late summer flowers were from the gardens of Mrs. Grover W. Gehant and Miss Lola Quick.

When tallies were compared at the close of the card games, those sharing honors were Mrs. J. R. Palmer, Mrs. Max Eichler, Mrs. Robert Lesage and Mrs. Kent Leeper of Grand Detour. Mrs. R. P. Andreas of Cedar Rapids, Iowa was also an out of town guest.

MOTHERS' CLUB HOLDS MEETING AT CIVIC CENTER

"Our Ambitions for Our Children" was the theme for a panel discussion presented at last evening's meeting for the Mothers' club in the ladies' lounge of the Loveland Community House. The study was led by Mrs. H. C. Reeder, Mrs. S. E. Monnier, Mrs. C. R. Collins, and Mrs. L. W. Anderson. Mrs. Fred Lewis, Mrs. J. C. Bort, and Mrs. Robert Benson were welcomed as new members. Mrs. Howard Hall, Mrs. Carl Santee, and Mrs. Paige Swim composed the hostess committee. Twenty-seven members were present.

POST-NUPTIAL SHOWER

Sixty-five neighbors and friends held a post-nuptial shower Friday evening, complimenting Mr. and Mrs. William Netz of Polo, recently married. An electrical appliance for the bride's kitchen was the group's gift for the couple.

Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served, following an evening of visiting.

GUEST SPEAKER

Miss Dollee Fauth of the Sterling high school faculty addressed members of the Sterling Rotary club Tuesday noon. She gave an account of her experiences while acting as exchange teacher in the schools of Great Britain in 1937-38.

Jacket-Skirt Effect

The "two-piece look" is fashion-important this season. Some outfits really are in two pieces, some are cleverly designed to look like two. Typical of smart "real" two-piece New York creations seen recently at Belmont Park race track is that above. The frock is rough, tobacco-hued rabbit's hair and wool, the jacket brown and powder blue. Big plastic buttons are gray.

PERSONALS

Mrs. Glenn O. Rucker of Perry, Iowa, and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Anderson of Iowa Falls have returned to their homes after a brief visit here with the former's sister, Mrs. John Fellows. They also spent some time with the J. M. Gilberts of Sterling and the Ray Gilberts of Dixon.

Mrs. Ida Rosbrook returned this morning from a ten-day vacation at Lake Waubesa.

Robert King, son of Highway Commissioner and Mrs. William King of South Dixon is convalescing from an appendectomy to which he submitted Monday evening at the Katherine Shaw Bethea hospital.

Mrs. Taber Johnson will leave Saturday for a visit with her brother, Attorney William Bardwell and family at Barrington.

Selectee Thought He Was Getting Fine Job

Chicago, Sept. 25.—(AP)—Lovell Hanks, 31, a clerk in a Decatur grocery, was given train fare back home today when selective service officials, ready to induct him into the army, found that he thought he was going to get a $200 a month defense job.

Hanks, who came here with a dozen selectees from the Decatur No. 2 board, said he had received the impression he was going to leave town to get more pay in a defense plant.

On the way to Chicago, he found that his companions were going into the army. Hanks didn't because he is past his 28th birthday and declined to sign a waiver.

Mrs. Metzler had chosen Mrs. Carrie Wales as guest of honor.

Mrs. Lois Cruikshank was the soloist of the evening, accompanied by Mrs. Milbrey Mulnix at the piano. The program consisted of an exhibition by the Rockford chapter drill team, which was made up of 17 members, under the direction of Jay Conklin in a very acceptable manner, and greatly enjoyed by the guests. Following this Mr. Metzler showed moving pictures which he had taken of interesting events.

Refreshments were served in the dining room. The table decorations were in keeping with autumn. Favors at the past officer's table were hand crocheted nut cups, the work of Mrs. Metzler.

and a gift at each place were given by Mr. and Mrs. Metzler. A brief social period followed. Guests were present from Dixon, Milledgeville, Lanark, Franklin Grove, Rockford and Oregon.

City of Newman Sued by RFC in Danville

Danville, Ill., Sept. 25.—(AP)—The Reconstruction Finance Corporation sued the city of Newman and its officials today to collect payments claimed due on bonds issued to construct a water system opened in 1936.

The bonds were to be paid from revenue, including rental of 43 fire hydrants by the city, and are in $4,889 default, the suit alleged.

The RFC sought an order to compel city officials to pay fire hydrant rental and to fix adequate rates to retire the bonds.

Bridges Destroyed by Second Army as It Retreats Slowly

War Games in Louisiana Nearing Completion After Hard Storm

With Second Army, Sept. 25.—(AP)—Lieut. General Ben Lear's Second Army withdrew its 110,000 men several miles along a 100-mile front today to prepared positions, as the Third Army struck powerful thrusts northward in the opening blows of the second phase of the Louisiana war games.

Columns of trucks, some in black-out, moved northward all night. Thousands of infantrymen tramped on foot through the dark. The strategy was comparable to that of a fast boxer stepping away from his heavier opponent's knock-out punches and preparing himself for a sudden springback while his larger, slower foe is off balance.

With Lieut. General Walter Krueger sending his numerically superior Third Army forces from concentrations in south Louisiana outposts of the Second Army acted as buffers along the wide front to protect the strategic withdrawal.

To delay the advance of the Third Army's 245,000 men, General Lear ordered the Red river bridge at Clarence, La., "destroyed" and pontoon crossings at Campt and Lake End, La. removed during the night.

Highway Bridges Destroyed Strategic highway bridges along roads across the entire front were destroyed in the wake of the withdrawal.

The major worry of General Lear's intelligence unit was to keep track of the team movement of the Second armored division and Second Infantry divisions. Such a combination indicated an attempt to penetrate the Second Army line with mechanized forces so that infantry and artillery could break through.

Equally secretive was the Second Army's movements of its armored, cavalry, two streamlined triangular and three 19,000 man square divisions, which gave General Lear a faster moving force than that of General Krueger.

To meet any sudden moves, vast reserves were in readiness behind the Second Army's front line, spread out at strategic points so as not to weaken the advance shock forces.

ATTACK AT DAWN

With Third Army, Sept. 25.—(AP)—Orders for dawn attacks signalled the renewal of the lightning war in the Louisiana maneuvers today.

Grounded by storm winds and poor visibility at the opening of the final week of the field exercises, almost 800 planes of the Second and Third armies were released to seek out the enemy from Shreveport, in north Louisiana, to Lake Charles, La., to the south.

Already land patrols of both armies had clashed, seeking the main bodies of troops and testing their strength for the development of a "battle" line almost 100 miles long across the central part of the state.

The Second Army, commanded by Lieut. General Ben Lear, has the mission of defending Shreveport against Lieut. General Walter Krueger's larger Third Army advancing from the south and spread eastward from Texas.

Both commanders apparently held back their armored divisions until the war games developed to a point for a decisive blow.

Scout Cars Active

First, armored scout cars of cavalry regiments shot out into the 100-mile-wide strip that separated the armies, to reach the enemy quickly and as soon as possible determine the type and strength of the opposition immediately ahead.

Meanwhile, slow but powerful infantry divisions moved forward, each a force of 15,000 to 22,000 men, to hold fast if it met stronger opposition or fight its way through lighter resistance.

The Second Army apparently jumped off from south of the Red river between Shreveport and Alexandria, La. Meantime, cavalry patrols of the Third army soon reached Boyce, La., northwest of Alexandria, and seemed in excellent position to hold that town as an anchor for a great stiff-arm swing southwest.

Once the ten divisions of the Third army and the seven of the Second were locked in the simulated war it appeared that both sides would let loose their armored forces for the finish fight. The battle might last the week out.

IOWA GRID TEAM LOOKS AHEAD TO MICHIGAN GAME

But Season Opens On Saturday In Game With Drake

Chicago, Sept. 25.—(AP)—Like several other Big Ten teams, Iowa is looking past its opening opponent of this Saturday toward a more important engagement a week later—against Michigan—but the Hawkeyes aren't ignoring entirely their first meeting in 31 years with the Bulldogs of Drake.

While the Hawks haven't been boomed for a top-notch season this year, there's no forgetting the way Dr. Eddie Anderson produced a "win 6, lose 1, tie 1" club out of his 1939 material, and the way the Hawks bounced Notre Dame 7 to 0 last year in a "win 4 lose 4" season.

Latest result of Anderson's player juggling is the appearance of Tom Farmer, second among Iowa ground-gainers last year, at left half in place of Jim Youel. Bill Parker and Ed Thomas currently are sharing left end duties.

Today also will mark the last day of heavy practice, preparatory to Saturday's opener, for Indiana, Notre Dame, Michigan, Ohio State and Purdue. Minnesota, playing Saturday at Washington, is en route to Seattle.

Eddie Herbert, Lou Saban, Bill Hillenbrand and Bob White were lined up as Indiana's backfield in preparation for the game with Detroit. At South Bend Coach Frank Leahy expressed worry over Notre Dame's pass defense against Arizona, Saturday opponent, and at Ann Arbor Coach Fritz Crisler, not one to be an optimist, expressed the opinion that Michigan State probably would take the Wolverines in the opener.

Ohio State's team saw motion pictures of the 1939 Mississippi-Buckeye game in an attempt to get an idea of what the Tigers may spring Saturday. Purdue worked on pass defense in view of Vanderbilt's strong passing attack.

Free this week end from big league activity, Northwestern, Illinois and Wisconsin have nine days in which to get ready for their first foes—Kansas State, Miami University and Marquette, respectively.

The Wildcats will play the freshmen Saturday and Coach Lynn Waldorf hopes to get a definite lineup on his backfield men. Illinois' line appears to be Paul Milosovich and Jim McArthur, ends; Elmer Engel and Alex Agase, tackles; Bob Wilson and Joe Pawlowski, guards, and John McArthur, center, this combination apparently satisfying Coach Bob Zupke for the present.

Bob Bauman is eligible for the coming season at Wisconsin as a result of having passed a condition exam. Bud Seelinger, left half, has a knee injury and may not get to play against Marquette.

Economy Remains Keynote of Gov. Green's Policies

Chicago, Sept. 25.—(AP)—Governor Green said today that Illinois citizens must protect their "investment" in government by seeing they get full value for their tax money.

In a speech prepared for delivery at the Traffic club of Chicago, the governor said that the average citizen's "concern in government exceeds even personal interests."

"The fundamental principle in private industry is that every dollar spent by the management must purchase a full dollar's worth of value," Green said. "In government business, it is fundamental that no dollar shall be spent that fails to purchase a full dollar's worth of benefits for the taxpayers from which it is collected. It is only when government avoids the easy expedient of excessive taxation that government can be called a going and solvent concern x x x."

"I realize that an administration of economy is not always a popular one, because economy necessitates saying 'no' a great many times to a great many people. But as long as I am in Springfield that is the kind of an administration you are going to have until the people of Illinois tell me they want something else."

Revenue passenger miles flown by domestic airlines in July set an all-time record of 136,495,505, an increase of 33.35 per cent over July one year ago.

Sports Roundup

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.

New York, Sept. 25.—(The Special News Service)—The figures say the Dodgers can clinch that pennant today, but our hunch is that they won't do it before Saturday—if they survive the victory party the fans are planning for Friday night.

Joe Louis has asked for two weeks' delay before he takes his army physical examination. He wants to see the World Series and "rest up just a little bit" after all his training. Bob Wakefield, brother of Dick (45-0-000) Wakefield, has entered the U. of Illinois and will be a candidate for freshman baseball next spring. K. J. Jenkins has a rival in Toby (Mrs. Jimmy) Hatcher, who works in her husband's corner at fights, gives the orders and uses methods like Katie's famous frying pan to see that they're obeyed. Max Baer is coming east to see the Louis-Nova fight and then he's going to try to get the Navy take him on as a physical instructor. With two days off from regular games, Ted Williams plans to spend his time getting some batting practice just to make sure his average won't fall below .400.

Quite, Unquite Last winter, when the Milwaukee Brewers were looking for a first baseman, Larry MacPhail told them: "I can't let you have Jim Waddell because Dolf Camilli can't stand U. S. 154-game grind any more. He's getting along in years."

Odds, and Some Ends Tony Kaufmann, who managed Stan Musial at Rochester, hasn't any doubts that Stan will stick with the Cards. "The kid is an iceberg," says Tony. "Yankee Stadium or a cow pasture—all parks are just another place to play ball to him." When the Rio Grande college football team couldn't get to a game at Louisville Saturday because its bus busted down, scouts from three colleges had to go home without learning anything. Bob Priestly, who plays left end for Brown, is one of five footballers in the same family who played the same position. His dad was left end at Colby and three brothers hold down the spot for Chautau Field (Ill.), Illinois U. and Melrose (Mass.) high.

Today's Guest Star

Fred Russell, Nashville Banner: "That half game tucked onto the Dodgers' lead is like being given a half-stroke on a par three golf hole and getting on the green in one."

Service Dept.

Two soldier football fans, Ed Houston and Fred Bleiler, plan to fly from Tallulah, La., to Baton Rouge to see Holy Cross play Louisiana State Saturday. They're maneuvering with the 50th air base group and have persuaded a couple of aviator pals to fly them to the game. Lacking dough, they wrote the Holy Cross A. A. asking how about four tickets. They'll get 'em. Fort Knox (Ky.) is having a tough time getting a football program lined up. Besides being shy of players they're finding Louisville independent teams are shy of the soldiers. Jack Mueller, former Peoria (Ill.) junior champion, thinks he couldn't have picked a better place than Mitchell Field, N. Y., to do his soldiering. It's practically surrounded by swanky golf courses and six of them have given playing privileges to the boys at the field.

NEW "PLAN TO DECIDE 1942 SEMI-PRO BASEBALL TITLE IS ANNOUNCED BY PREXIE

New York, Sept. 25.—(AP)—A new plan to decide the 1942 semi-pro world's baseball championship was announced today by Ray Dumont, president of the National Semi-Pro baseball congress, under which two divisions will be established in each of the 48 state tournaments—one for industrial and "town" baseball clubs, the other for army camps.

Dumont said each division will decide its own national championship, the factory and "town" state championship teams staging their eighth annual tournament at Wichita (Kan.) Aug. 14-27 and the leading soldier clubs meeting for the U. S. army championship, scheduled tentatively for Chicago, Aug. 15-22.

The two winners then will compete in a seven-game series for the world's title.

Dixon Veteran Is Surprised; Buddy of '98 Is Visitor

Mr. and Mrs. I. M. Goodwin of 118 Crawford avenue were agreeably surprised Monday evening by a visit from R. E. Ellis of New Albany, Ind., a comrade of Mr. Goodwin in the 17th U. S. infantry in the Cuban and Philippine campaigns of the Spanish-American war. The veterans had not seen each other since early in 1899.

When Mr. Ellis returned to the United States from Manila he secured employment with the Davison Chemical Corp. and in his years of service with that firm he has risen to the position of manager. He brought with him a diary of his military activities from the time of his enlistment until his return to civilian life in May, 1899 and also had a collection of snapshots of the Ohio river flood in 1937, some of which show parts of the chemical company's plants removed in order that houses and buildings floating in the swollen stream might pass through. Mr. Ellis returned to New Albany Tuesday.

From the Pillsbury bag—

Date Fluffs

You'll bake them by the dozen!

Make them this easy Pillsbury way:

Tender, Fluffy Biscuit Base—1. Sift and measure 2 c. Enriched Pillsbury's Best Flour. (Enriched Pillsbury's Best is no different in flavor or baking quality from the Pillsbury's Best that's earned the preference of millions of American housewives. The two added B-vitamins and iron simply supply vital elements your family needs every day.) Add 3 tps. baking powder (or 2 tps. double-acting), 1/2 tsp. salt and 2 Tbsp. sugar; sift twice. 2. Cut in 1/4 c. shortening until quite fine. 3. Add about 1/2 c. milk, stir until flour is dampened. 4. Knead lightly for a few seconds. Feel how soft and tender your dough is—how easy to handle. Sure indications of the delicate, golden-brown Date Fluffs you're going to take out of your oven! We know—because we see these same fine results every day from our own ovens. We test Pillsbury's Best every hour during milling—test it by actual bakings 4 to 6 times a day. It's truly bake-proved, to protect your baking! 5. Roll out into 16x12-inch rectangle. Cut into eight 2-inch strips. Brush each with melted butter. Stack dough in 2 sets of 4 layers each with this filling between strips:

Succulent Date Filling—1. Combine 1 c. sliced dates, 1/2 c. water, 1 tsp. grated orange rind, and 1/4 tsp. cinnamon. Cook until thick enough to spread. 2. Remove from heat; add 1/2 c. chopped nut meats. Chill (ironing) spread on biscuit base. 3. Slice each set of layers into 6 pieces. 4. Place in greased muffin pans, cut side up. Bake in hot oven (400° F.) about 20 min. Recipe makes a dozen Date Fluffs; bring them warm to the table! One bite—your family's delighted with the light, tender fluffiness of biscuits made with Pillsbury's Best. Two bites—they're raving about the combination of melt-in-the-mouth biscuit and chewy date-nut filling!

Two B-VITAMINS and iron in Enriched Pillsbury's Best

Weekly Food and Marketing Letter by Mrs. Emily M. Lautz for Dixon Telegraph Readers

It is easy to pop a can of consommé into the refrigerator to chill for hot weather use, yet the ingenious cook often prefers to create her own jellied soup.

Particularly is the homemaker inspired to experiment with a supply of jellied soup if she has on hand some well-flavored chicken or veal stock and some pot liquors remaining from cooked vegetables. There is practically your first course: Just add dissolved gelatin, chill and serve, garnished with lemon wedges and parsley sprigs.

For plain, unflavored gelatin is the secret. You can add gelatin and chill almost any soup you ordinarily would serve hot in the winter. There are a few simple rules to guide the fresh explorer in the field of chilled soups. First, the soup must be thoroughly cold and jellied, so that it is easy to manage. Consistency is important—not "rubbery," not too thin.

And then flavor! If the meat or chicken stock is bland, simmer extra seasonings in it and strain before pouring over the dissolved gelatin. Test out your own ideas on flavor with such additions as sliced onion, parsley, celery, 1 or 2 whole cloves, grated lemon rind, small bay leaf and green pepper. A few grains of sugar help some soups, particularly tomato aspic or bouillon. For a richer soup, use beef stock.

Short of meat stock? You can still make jellied soup by dissolving 1 to 2 bouillon cubes for each cup of boiling water. The bouillon cubes combined with juices from cooked vegetables will yield a delicious jellied soup. Or substitute canned broth. After the soup stock is flavored and strained, a few cooked vegetables may be added, if desired, such as green peas, very tiny cubes of carrot, or minced green pepper. Then add dissolved gelatin.

The recipe for jellied soup follows closely the rule for aspic jelly, except that the jelly takes 1/2 cup less of the soup stock (3 1/2 cups).

Jellied Soup for Six
2 tablespoons plain gelatin
4 cups soup stock, well seasoned
Rind 1 lemon, grated
1 tablespoon onion juice, optional
1/4 teaspoon paprika
2 egg whites

Use chicken or veal for light colored soups; for richer soup, brown or beef stock. Soften gelatin in 1/2 cup of cold stock. Heat the remaining 3 1/2 cups stock, adding lemon rind, onion juice, paprika and more seasonings, if necessary. (If onion juice is omitted, lemon juice may be used.) Add egg whites slightly beaten. Stir constantly and boil 5 minutes. Cool, strain through double cheesecloth and chill.

If soup is chilled in bouillon cups, beat slightly with a fork just before serving. It is not necessary to clarify canned broths, consommé or stock made from bouillon cubes with egg whites.

Jellied Tomato Bouillon: Use equal quantities (2 cups each) broth and strained tomato. Garnish with parsley or watercress.

Tomato Aspic Jelly: Use 2 cups tomato juice and 1 1/2 cups stock.

Jellied chicken broth is a delicacy designed especially for convalescents and for small folks who must be coaxed to eat. It combines nourishment with appetite appeal. See that the individual servings are small and temptingly garnished.

Jellied Chicken Broth
2 tablespoons plain gelatin
1/2 cup cold water
3 cups chicken broth
1/4 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon celery salt
1 tablespoon lemon juice
1 tablespoon onion juice, if desired.

Soften gelatin in cold water. Add hot broth and stir until gelatin is dissolved. Add seasonings. Pour into bouillon cups that have been rinsed in cold water and chill. This jellied broth, which serves 6, also is delicious hot.

Chilled Fruit Soup
1 cup prunes
1/2 cup currants
1/2 cup raisins
2 quarts water
1/2 cup sugar (or quick) cooking tapioca
1 stick whole cinnamon
2 lemons, juice and rind
Sugar to taste
Cream for garnish

Wash fruit and soak overnight in the water. Cook in same water for about 1 hour. Add sugar, cinnamon, grated lemon rind and juice and sugar. Cook until sugar is clear. Cool, then place in refrigerator to chill thoroughly. Place 1 tablespoon whipped cream or sour cream on each serving.

STRING BEAN SURPRISES
String beans need not become monotonous. They could be served every day, in a different way.

When you bring them in from garden or store, place them in the refrigerator if they are not to be cooked at once. Stored at room temperature, all vegetables lose vitamins rapidly. Do not wash or cut until ready for use. Then wash quickly in cold water before cutting.

Cut tips with a sharp knife and drop at once into rapidly boiling, unsalted water. Cover and cook in small amount of water until tender, 10 to 15 minutes, depending on age. Cooking time for mature beans can be reduced by cutting them in long strips.

Beans may be cooked with a meat flavoring of some sort, such as meat stock, beef extract, chopped bacon or a ham bone. However, beans are less digestible when cooked with meat. Extra flavor may be given by adding a bouillon cube to the cooking water.

Salt just before serving and add 1 tablespoon butter, minced parsley or a few sprigs of mint. Or lift beans from cooking juices, add 2 to 3 tablespoons light cream to the pot liquor, reheat and pour over each serving of beans as a sauce. Pot liquor from beans is full of minerals and vitamins.

When not served with the vegetable, it should be placed in a covered glass jar in the refrigerator. Combine with tomato or lemon juice as a vegetable cocktail, or use in gravy, soup, stew or in sauces.

To add flavor without cooking with meat, crumble crisp bacon in bits and sprinkle over drained beans at serving time.

Cook one slice onion with the beans. Or rub the saucepan with garlic, if the family is garlic-minded.

JUST DESSERTS

Chocolate Chip Cake
1 bar semi-sweet chocolate (7 or 8 oz.)

2 cups sifted cake flour
2 teaspoons baking powder
1/4 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup shortening (or part butter)
1/2 cup granulated sugar
2 eggs
3/4 cup milk
1 teaspoon vanilla

Cut chocolate into small cubes. Shave a small amount of chocolate to sprinkle on tops of cakes. Sift flour, measure and sift again with baking powder and salt. Cream shortening with sugar, beating until fluffy. Add vanilla while creaming. Add eggs and beat well. Add dry ingredients alternately with milk and vanilla, beating after each addition until smooth. Fold in chocolate. Fill greased cup cake pans 2/3 full, or bake in 2 layers, if desired. Bake 30 to 35 minutes in moderate oven 375 degrees F.

Vanilla Ice Cream
1 1/2 cups top milk
2 eggs, separated
1/4 cup sugar
1 tablespoon cornstarch
1/4 teaspoon salt
1 pint (1 cup) whipping cream
2 teaspoons vanilla

Mix cornstarch, sugar, salt, beaten egg yolks and milk. Cook in double-boiler 10 minutes, stirring constantly. Cool. Add beaten whites and vanilla. Pour into freezing tray of refrigerator. Freeze to a heavy mush. Remove from refrigerator. Freeze to a heavy mush. Remove from refrigerator, beat until fluffy and fold in whipped cream. Freeze. Beat thoroughly after 1 hour.

TESTED RECIPES

One-Step Creamed Potatoes
3 cups raw cubes potatoes
1 cup rich milk
1/4 teaspoon salt

Few grains pepper
1 1/2 teaspoons flour
2 tablespoons butter
2 tablespoons parsley, minced

Stir the flour smooth in one tablespoon of the milk and place in top of double boiler with potatoes, milk, salt and pepper. Cover. Use cold water in lower half of boiler, placing over moderate heat until water boils actively. Lower heat to simmering point and cook 35 minutes, or until potatoes are tender. Stir in butter. Sprinkle each serving with fresh parsley. Serves six.

Thousand Island Dressing
This popular summer dressing is always in demand. Excellent with green mixed salads to accompany cold cuts or cold fowl.

company cold cuts or cold fowl.
1 cup mayonnaise
1 tablespoon tarragon vinegar
1/4 cup heavy cream, whipped
1 hard-cooked egg, chopped
1 tablespoon green pepper, chopped
2 tablespoons cooked beets, chopped
1 tablespoon onion, chopped
1/2 teaspoon minced parsley
2 tablespoons chili sauce.

Combine ingredients in order given and mix well. Chill before serving. Yields about 1 1/2 cups.

FRESH-AIR "FILLERS"

Jungle Stew
There is no rule against serving this indoors, but it comes with special recommendation for outdoor eating:

2 cups navy beans
8 slices bacon, minced
4 onions, sliced
8 small potatoes
1 large can tomatoes
1 quart water
1/2 teaspoon salt
2 cloves
1 small bay leaf

Soak beans overnight and in the morning cook in a large kettle until partly done. Brown onion with bacon in a fry pan and add with everything else to the bean kettle. Simmer slowly until beans are tender.

Cowboy's Delight
This one-dish meal calls for a casserole filled with alternate thick layers of potatoes, sliced carrots, sliced onions, with 6 or 8 slices of bacon over the top of dish. Each layer of vegetables is seasoned with salt and pepper and dotted liberally with butter. Pour warm milk over the top until it can just be seen through the top layer of potatoes. Bake 1 hour in a moderate oven 350 degrees F.

Kabobs
1 1/2 pounds top round steak
6 slices bacon
6 medium onions (or mushrooms)
Salt and pepper

Cut meat in 1-inch pieces, cut bacon the same size; slice onions.

Arrange beef, bacon and onion alternately on forks or sticks. (Use metal skewers, if done in preheated broiler at home. Broil 8 minutes.)

Cook over fire until well-browned. Season after cooking. Serve 6.

What's New in the Home

How would you like a turkey steak? Such steaks are being introduced by Oregon turkey growers and soon will be sold through the usual retail outlets. Most of the steaks come from quick-frozen turkeys and you may have white meat or dark.

First it was the portable iron. Now it is the portable ironer. Equipped with one simple control, the compact new ironer weighs only 35 pounds and may be moved and stored with ease. Men's shirts may be ironed quickly, since it is possible for the first time to finish sleeves, shoulders and v-neck of a shirt in one continuous operation.

Sunny yellow sauce from fresh peaches—in December or July. Pour it over sponge cake, plain blanc mange, vanilla ice-cream or use it in individual tart shells, topped with meringue. Tree-ripened fruit now will be available all the year in this new peach sauce, crushed and canned in South Carolina direct from the famous orchards.

Mrs. F. L. Blewfield Elected President Lee Co. W. C. T. U.

Annual Convention of Union Held Tuesday in Franklin Grove

The 47th annual convention of the W. C. T. U. was held on Tuesday in the Brethren church of Franklin Grove. A good representation from each union in the county was present.

The meeting opened with singing "This is My Father's World" and "O Master Let Me Walk With Thee." Devotions were led by Mrs. Blewfield of Dixon. The first part of the period was given to a meditation on the thought of quietness in our minds and in our lives, very especially in this time of great turmoil everywhere. "Be still and know that I am God" is a command which we need to remember often in these days of great stress. A brief period of silent prayer followed, then Mrs. Blewfield led the convention in spoken prayer. This devotional period was most helpful, an inspiring opening for the day's program of activities.

The minutes of the 46th convention, held last year in Dixon, were read by the recording secretary, Mrs. C. P. Tibbets of Dixon. The treasurer, Mrs. Fred Hobbs of Dixon then gave the financial report for the year. There are 97 paid-up members in the county, also 10 honorary members. Reports of the local unions were then given by their respective delegates. They all showed healthy activity in various lines of work and study which are a part of the W. C. T. U. plan. The county directors of departments then gave their reports, explaining in more detail the work undertaken by their special departments. Very few people outside of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union realize what a broad program it has.

Officers Elected

Next came election of officers for the coming year. Mrs. Tilton of Amboy and Mrs. McWethy of Dixon served as tellers. The following were selected: President, Mrs. Floyd Blewfield, Dixon; vice president, Mrs. S. L. Cover, Franklin Grove; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Elizabeth Sunday, Franklin Grove; recording secretary, Mrs. C. P. Tibbets, Dixon; treasurer, Mrs. Fred Hobbs, Dixon. Mrs. Hobbs then gave a beautiful memorial tribute for those who had passed on during the past year: Mrs. Marion Mahen and Mr. Baum, both of Dixon, the latter an honorary member. Mrs. Mary Strook of Dixon led the convention in the noon-tide prayer. A bountiful picnic dinner was served in the church dining room and this and the accompanying social period were enjoyed by all.

One of the enjoyable and helpful features of the forenoon program was a lesson Scientific Temperance Instruction, given by the state director of this department, Dr. Mildred Young of Evanston. By means of a chart and various bottles, test tubes, etc., she showed very convincingly the solvent and dehydrant effects of alcohol on the cells of the body and other organic matter. This leads up very definitely to the fact that it is the alcohol contained in certain beverage liquors that does the harm and that this alcohol is always a destroyer, so used, even though it may vary in proportion. She showed very plainly that by chemical analysis and accurate measurement, it had been found that there is as much alcohol in two bottles of 3.2 beer as in a glass of whiskey. She told, too, of the first effects of drinking alcohol, loss of judgment, reason, self-criticism, later comes restricted vision, color-blindness and other physical effects; yet the danger really begins with the first-mentioned reactions, though they are never considered "intoxication" by the world in general. But the scientist knows that they are a part of that process.

Afternoon Session

Following the luncheon, the convention again came to order, to complete the routine business necessary. A short session of the new executive board as held to select county directors of departments for the year's work ahead. The following were chosen:

1. Christian Citizenship, Miss Caille Morgan, Dixon.
 2. Child Welfare, Mrs. McWethy, Dixon.
 3. Evangelism and Religious Education, Mrs. Mary Strook, Dixon.
 4. Flower Mission, Mrs. Edith Fell, Amboy.
 5. Literature and Publications, Miss Flora Seals, Dixon.
 6. Music, Mrs. Bertha Rorick, Dixon.
 7. Publicity, Mrs. Elizabeth Sunday, Franklin Grove.
 8. Speech Contests, Mrs. Elizabeth Blocher, Franklin Grove.
 9. Scientific Temperance Instruction, Mrs. Anna S. Buck, Franklin Grove.
 10. Soldiers and Sailors, Mrs. Fred Hobbs, Dixon.
 11. Temperance and Missions, Mrs. C. P. Tibbets, Dixon.
 12. Loyal Temperance Legion, Mrs. Oma Holbrook, Dixon.
 13. Youth Temperance Council, Mrs. Alma Lewis, Amboy.
- Rev. S. L. Cover of Franklin Grove led the afternoon devotions;

Mrs. Cover led the salute to the flag. Misses Josephine and Maxine Kelley sang two selections, accompanied by their mother, which were much enjoyed. Gene and Dale Holbrook of Dixon, representing the L. E. L., gave two special numbers, the former a "Flannelgram," portraying the story of the Good Shepherd; the latter a song number. These two were greatly enjoyed.

Mrs. Blewfield gave a group of readings which brought home to all present, in a very beautiful way, some of the deeper experiences of life. Then came the address of the beloved president of the Illinois W. C. T. U., Mrs. Maude P. Fairbairn of Joliet. She stressed the importance of spiritual development in all that the W. C. T. U. undertakes; she brought some of the great messages from the National W. C. T. U. convention, held recently in Grand Rapids, Michigan. She urged the need of constant vigilance regarding the inroads of the liquor business, mentioning one place in the state where a liquor dealers' convention was held in the YM of the public school, also the insidious type of liquor advertising that is being printed in women's magazines. She urged that Christian people everywhere, and especially mothers, continue to send requests to our senators in Washington, asking that they do all in their power to enact S. B. 860, the "Sheppard Bill," into the law of the land. This bill if passed and approved by the president, would ban all liquor from the training camps. She announced the state convention of the W. C. T. U. which is to be held in Streator, October 28-31, and urged as many to go as possible.

At the close of her address, she conducted the beautiful service of the "White Ribbon Recruit," tying the white ribbon on the wrist of a tiny girl and pledging the audience to do all in their power to make her life safe.

The service closed with prayer, and the convention was adjourned, taking back to the various communities of the county, it is hoped, something of the inspiration gained, to do something to make this old world better.

Gov. Green Asks U. I. Professors to Assist Fight on Living Cost

Chicago, Sept. 25.—(AP)—Housewives battling an old World war foe—high cost of living—found a new ally today in the state administration and its educational facilities.

This promise of support came yesterday from Governor Green who cited Washington statistics showing that the average price increase over last May exceeded 17 per cent.

"This is a situation that will face every family in the state in some way or another," the governor declared.

The governor, as chairman of the state council on defense, said he had asked Arthur C. Willard, University of Illinois president, to assign educators, home economists and other technical experts to work as an advisory board with the council's women's division.

Also planned are daily broadcasts from the university's station WILL and other outlets giving a shopping service, food purchase hints and balanced diet planning.

Soldier Drowned Near Havana; Body Is Found

Havana, Ill., Sept. 25.—(AP)—The body of Private Arnold R. Akester, 24, drowned in the Illinois river when a boat in which he was riding overturned, was sent to his Washington, Ind., home today.

The accident occurred near here yesterday when the boat upset in the wash of another craft. Two soldiers with Akester saved themselves by holding onto their vessel but the Indiana youth, attached to headquarters detachment of the 10th air base group, Chanute Field, went down in 14 feet of water.

Plans for Canvass of Illinois Farms Made

Decatur, Ill., Sept. 25.—(AP)—The program for Illinois' participation in the agriculture department's more-a-food-for-defense drive was set up yesterday at a meeting of AAA state committeemen and field men.

George Bradley, assistant AAA director for the north central region, discussed plans for the farm-to-farm canvass between Oct. 15-Dec. 1.

Township AAA committeemen will ask farmers to pledge increased production of foods needed by the U. S. and England.

233 CASES OF POLIO

Springfield, Ill., Sept. 25.—(AP)—Eight more cases of infantile paralysis were reported to the state health department today, bringing the total for the year to 233.

Dr. Roland R. Cross, state health director, said four of the cases were in Chicago and one each in Bond, Macoupin, Marion and Vermilion counties.

CROSSING FATALITY

Wheaton, Ill., Sept. 25.—(AP)—Isaac C. Bryden, Wheaton Post-office employee, by the Chicago Post-office, was killed today when his automobile was struck by a Northwestern train at a crossing here.

Warren A. Candler, Nationally Famous Clergyman, Is Dead

Retired Bishop of Methodist Church, Passes Away at Age of 84

Atlanta, Sept. 25.—(AP)—Bishop Warren Akin Candler, 84, retired, Methodist church leader for more than half a century and one of the nation's best known clergymen, died at his home today.

Licensed to preach when only 17 years old, a few months after his conversion, Warren Candler spent more than half a century in the service of the Methodist Episcopal church, South. More than thirty years of that time he was a bishop.

As a circuit rider, elder, editor, author, college president, and university chancellor, he touched every phase of the life of his denomination and was its senior bishop.

Born of the distinguished Candler family at Villa Rica, Ga., on August 23, 1857, his impressionable years were passed during the chaotic days of the Civil war, Sherman's march to the sea and the difficult reconstruction period. He had a lifelong effect.

He was largely responsible for the defeat in 1925 of the proposed unification of the northern and southern branches of the Methodist church, throwing the full weight of his mental attainments and the prestige he had gained by long service against the proposal and holding his ground in a notable debate in which his brother, Judge John S. Candler, led the forces in favor of unification.

Opposed His Brother

Judge Candler delivered an eloquent appeal for the merger before a special session of the general conference of the church. The gathering set aside its rules in order to permit Bishop Candler to reply to his brother's arguments.

The churchman opposed unification on administrative grounds. He pointed out that the northern church used a system of district superintendents instead of presiding elders, that it admitted negro bishops and preachers to its conferences and that it already had established churches and schools in the south. He argued that these facts would make it impossible for the southern branch to unite with its northern neighbor without abandoning some of its most cherished policies.

Bishop Candler came into national prominence again in 1928 when he refused to take part in the presidential campaign of that year despite the wide-spread Protestant opposition to the Democratic candidate, Gov. Al Smith of New York. For justification of his stand he went back to his boyhood days and quoted from an address made by Southern Methodist bishops to ministers and laymen in 1865.

Recalled Charge

"Know your high calling. Preach Christ and Him crucified. Do not preach politics," said that address. "You have no commission to preach politics. The divinity of the church is never more strikingly displayed than when it holds its ever-straightforward way in the midst of worldly commotions."

"Offering no criticism of others," said Bishop Candler, "I propose to abide unflinchingly by this principle, discharging conscientiously my duties as a citizen and fulfilling with fidelity my commission as a minister of Jesus Christ."

To these notable situations in religion and politics, Bishop Candler added distinction in the educational field. He was made president of his alma mater, Emory College, when he was only 31 years old, relinquished that post when he was elected bishop in 1898 but for many years thereafter, beginning in 1914, he was chancellor of the institution after it became Emory University.

An uncompromising stand of Bishop Candler against intercollegiate athletics defeated numerous attempts to bring Emory into competitive relationship with other southern schools in major sports. Its students were allowed to en-

City Governments of State Asked to Curb Waste of Every Kind

Chicago, Sept. 25.—(AP)—Carl H. Chatters, director of the Municipal Finance Officers Association, urged today that cities enjoin defense bonds stop waste of all kinds, maintain physical facilities in first class order and adhere to a pay as you go policy.

In an address prepared for delivery to the Union League club, the Chicagoan said a pay as you go policy was important for these reasons:

"Such a policy can best be started during prosperous times. 'Communities which reduce instead of increasing their bonded debt will have their funds available for operating purposes instead of payment of debt when the next depression hits.'"

Chatters said tax collection laws should be enforced rigidly now because "unless cities do this, when will they ever do it?"

He advocated that cities eliminate all unnecessary activities and reduce the costs of existing activities wherever possible.

Shuck's Quintet Is Undeclared in Big Classic League

SPONSOR CHEWS ON HIS NAILS, COUNTING MEALS

Grocery Quintet Wins Series Again And Chicken Dinners

All chicken callers make application to Paul Shuck, sponsor of the Shuck Grocery bowling team! Paul—in a moment of expansion—told his bowling quintet he would stake 'em to a poultry dinner each time they won three games. So when the Classic League opened last Wednesday night the pinner set their appetites for chicken and noodles and swept the series—and last night, as Paul sat feeding on his nails, they took three more! (Aw, Shucks, fellas, you can carry a good thing too far!)

But you must remember, Paul, that the six-game victory has your boys at the top of the big 16-team league. And that's worth sumpin'. As the Shucks swept the series from the Welty Pontiacs, they set a new high team series record with 2973 to erase the count of 2849 set by Jay's Tavern on the opening night.

Hoyle Counts 625
Leading the Grocers was Hoyle with a 625 series which established a new high to better the mark set last week by Ed Worley who had counted 620. Hoyle had games of 211-223-191. Pacing the Pontiacs was J. Burbick with a 491 count.

Old Style Lager also won three games last night by defeating the Family Liquor Store. Leading the winners was Tilton with a 497 series. The Lager-men also counted a 2905 series which is second high in the league. Leading the loser was F. Loeschner with a 462 series. United Cigars swept the series from Welch & Brader to take second place in the big circuit. Leading the smokers was Fitzsimmons with a consistent series of 608 with games of 191-209-208. Pacing the losers was Ransome with 440.

Jay's Team Wins Three
Jay's Tavern won three games from the Court House. Beane led the winners with a 542 series, one pin better than his team-mate, Hawker. W. Finch was high for the Court House with 408. Wilbur Lumber company won two games from Williams DeSoto. Senneff counted 513 for the winners and Wolfe led the losers with 573.

Boytown-Richards won two games from Beier's Bread as Miller counted 513 for the clothiers and J. McCordie was high for the doughboys with 484. I. N. U. turned on the power to stun the Knacks in two games. Sparking the utilities was Stuart with 515 while Knacks were led by Smith with 579.

Gold Buckle Orange won two games from Bonded Gas & Oil as Rowland rolled 422 for the orange-men and Oehl counted 481 for the oilers.

High games last night included those of: Smith, 217; Detweiler, 203; Shawger, 208; Wolfe, 202; Beane, 201; Fitzsimmons, 209-208; Hoyle, 211-223; Underwood, 206; Shuck, 206.

Joe Doesn't Like to Work Overtime; Plans Quick K. O.

By SID FEDER
Greenwood Lake, N. Y., Sept. 25.—(AP)—Simply because he's the kind of a guy who doesn't like to work overtime, Joe Louis expects to knock out Lou Nova inside of eight rounds in the Polo Grounds ring next Monday night.

Joe doesn't come right out in meeting with a prediction as to when they'll be hugging Louie the Yogi out of there. Joe doesn't pick the round any more, ever since he made a slight error one day in 1936 by tabbing himself to kayo Max Schmeling in a large hurry in their first fight. That was a bad one.

But the Bomber gave you the tip-off today as to how he feels about this outing. He tore through his training ritual up here in the Ramapo Hills like a pedestrian crossing Broadway against the lights. He sailed right over sparring partners and drove through his floorwork as if he was getting ready for an eight-round instead of the full 15-round derby route. A couple of sports writers mentioned the fact.

"Long Night's Work"
"Eight rounds?" he continued. "Say, that's an awful long night's work, ain't it?"

Joe doesn't know yet if this will be his box-out from the business of bashing heads. He turns in his trunks and gloves next month to get a khaki suit and do some fighting for Uncle Sam. That is, if he can pass his army physical examination in mid-October.

"Guess I can," he added. "Ain't nuthin' wrong with me, 'cept maybe flat feet, but that shouldn't stop me goin' in the army."

This means he'll be inducted, the way he figures it, around the end of October.

"I'll keep in shape and do some sparring while I'm a soldier," he went on, "and then if a fight comes up I'll be ready."

Two New Teachers

Parents of Rochelle elementary school children will doubtless be glad to learn that the two new teachers selected for the local school will teach art, a much-neglected subject in the past. Rubert Miller will teach industrial arts and art in the junior high school, and Miss Lola Bour will teach social science in the junior high school and art in the primary and intermediate departments. They fill the vacancies created by the resignations of Miss Virginia Lackman and Elmer Guio. Miss Lackman accepted a position as teacher at Ann Arbor, Michigan, and Mr. Guio is now instructor of industrial arts at the Rochelle Township high school.

L. O. O. M. Governor Here

Wayne Wallace, former president of the state Moose order, and the youngest of Mooseheart governors, will be the main speaker at the dedication of the new Moose quarters in Rochelle, Sunday afternoon, Sept. 28. In 1919, Mr. Wallace was a member of the first graduating class of Mooseheart. He worked his way through the University of Illinois, from which he graduated in 1923, with a B. S. degree in civil engineering. He is associated with the Portland Cement company as field engineer of Cook county.

Following an afternoon's program, and the initiation of a large class of new members, the women of the Moose will serve a 6 o'clock dinner in the attractive Moose dining rooms in the Bain building.

Legion Auxiliary Installation

New officers for the local American Legion Auxiliary were installed in a beautiful ceremony following a 1 o'clock scramble luncheon Monday at the Legion hall. Special guest of honor was Mrs. Dorothy Wick of Freeport, a district director of the Legion Auxiliary, who conducted the installation of the new officers. Mrs. Wick was assisted by Mrs. Albert Lind, installing marshal, and Mrs. Nertie Harter and Mrs. E. J. Colwell as the color bearers. Mrs. Bernard Fahey acted as pianist.

Allen William Marks

Allen William Marks, 56, passed away at 8:30 o'clock Sunday evening in the Sterling public hospital, after an illness of the past year. He had been bedfast for six weeks, and was taken to the hospital Sunday noon for treatment. The body was removed to the Meivin funeral home where funeral services were conducted Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 by Rev. A. H. Keck of St. John's Lutheran church. Interment was in Riverside cemetery. Mr. Marks was born Nov. 9, 1885, in Hagers-town, Md. and came to Illinois at the age of 21 years. He was employed as a farm hand around Sterling and Dixon for 20 years and for a short time worked at the Keystone Mfg. Co. in Rock Falls. Later he took up farming southeast of Rock Falls near Van Petten and continued farming until 1905 when he again went to work as a farm hand for 10 years.

On Feb. 28, 1884 he was married to Rosa L. Blair who preceded him in death on Jan. 2, 1902. To this union three sons and two daughters were born, two of whom, Mrs. William C. Wilder of Rock Falls and Clifford L. Marks of Sterling, survive. Three children preceded their father in death. Theodore who died in infancy, Mrs. Clara Sweet in 1919 and Martin Marks in 1939. Mr. Marks also leaves one sister, Mrs. Mary Gilbert of La Verne, Calif., two grandchildren, Maynard Wilder of Rock Falls and Lloyd Hunter of Sterling and one great grandchild, Paul Hunter of Sterling. He was also preceded in death by one sister and two brothers.

Only Brother of First Lady Dies

G. Hall Roosevelt, 50, engineer, banker and transport executive, died early today at the Walter Reed army hospital with his only sister, Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, at his bedside.

A brief telephoned announcement from the White House said: "Mr. Hall Roosevelt passed away at 4 a. m. (CST) at Walter Reed hospital. Mrs. Roosevelt was at the hospital."

Hall had been ill many months, first in a hospital at Poughkeepsie, N. Y., and subsequently was given army hospitalization by virtue of his world war aviation service.

The relationship between big bluff Gracie Hall Roosevelt and his only sister, the first lady, was extremely close. Orphaned as children, they were tied by a strong and never-waning bond.

The brother-in-law of one president, Hall was the nephew of another, President Theodore Roosevelt.

The expected death of President Roosevelt's brother-in-law caused the White House yesterday to cancel a luncheon which had been planned for the visiting Duke and Duchess of Windsor.
